Litigation Support

In most shareholder dispute litigations, those who fully understand the financial and accounting situations of the Company will no doubt have a competitive edge.

With more than 20 years' dispute consulting experience, our Litigation Support professionals have a solid track record of assisting lawyers in comprehending and interpreting intricate financial and economic issues. We can review relevant documentation to form an initial assessment of the case and identify areas of loss.

With the backup of a team of qualified accountants and lawyers, we are able to provide forensic accounting from case preparation to asset tracing. Legal practitioners have found our financial insights and analysis invaluable at all stages of litigation, from case theory development to discovery to trial.

Our director Mr. Horace Ho is experienced in providing expert opinion on financial and accounting issues. As an expert witness, Mr. Horace Ho is able to assist the Court and the parties in understanding and resolving complex financial issues at trial.

Dispute Resolution Consultation

In most cases, clients would like to resolve their shareholder disputes through other channels before they embark on the expensive and stressful procedures of litigation. Our professional team includes practicing lawyers, certified public accountants and qualified company secretaries. We can act as independent consultants to advise on the possible options and strategies, and can provide valuation on shares which is crucial in the settlement process.
